Guidelines/ Instructions:

Submissions due by November 30th, 2018

Must be a Co-op member to submit artwork

Co-op Employees are welcome to submit artwork

All Submissions will be anonymous:

- Pick up a submission packet at the front desk of the Co-op (manila envelope, instruction sheet with a label).
- Fill out artist's name, member number, and contact information on the label
- Write phone number corresponding to the label on the back side of the artwork
- There should be no personally identifying information on the artwork except for the phone number on back (artists will have a chance to sign their art before it is displayed).
- Return artwork, enclosed in the manila envelope with label taped or paper-clipped to the outside of the envelope.

Art should be an image that evokes our Co-op values:

- Supporting NM Growers and producers: local and community based products
- Food for people, not profit
- High standards of quality
- Democratic, cooperative and ethical business practices
- Fairness, participation, and empowerment in the workplace and the community
- Encourages and implements appropriate environmental practices
- Educates about food, nutrition and health
- Responsive and accountable to the community that we serve

Be creative!
